The Competitive Landscape of Online Platforms

A competitive landscape is an analysis of how a business compares within the competitive climate. A competitive landscape analysis typically includes an analysis of strategies through strengths and weaknesses, products and services and growth models. A competitive landscape analysis can include many different pieces of information, including the main services and products the business provides, the annual sales and the market share levels.

What Is a Competitive Landscape?

The macroeconomic situation, particularly in the UK (one of the most advanced fintech markets) and in Europe, has deteriorated, slowing down funding to younger and newer companies. Finally, in terms of geography, more and more mega-deals are happening in developing countries, where a large un- and underbanked population provided a very fertile ...
