Notes From An Accidental Band Geek - Kindle edition by ...

In music, an accidental is a note of a pitch (or pitch class) that is not a member of the scale or mode indicated by the most recently applied key signature. In musical notation, the sharp (#), flat (b), and natural (♮) symbols, among others, mark such notes—and those symbols are also called accidentals.. In the measure (bar) where it appears, an accidental sign raises or lowers the ...

Accidental (music) - Wikipedia

A note with a sharp accidental will sound a semitone higher than the same note without a sharp. For example, when notated with a sharp accidental, a C on the piano would become a C#. Instead of playing the C, you would play the note a half-step higher than C, which is the black key to the right of the C on a modern piano.
