The Assistant - Robert Walser | The Quotable Paperback

In excess of 1,000 prose pieces are said to remain untranslated, so it appears that we can expect more from Robert Walser—once so lost to the world and to himself—for many years to come. The Assistant One of the companion satisfactions of seeing The Assistant in English for the first time has been observing the quality of critical responses. As I suggested, Walser has often been misunderstood and underappreciated by critics, and so the number of reviews, and the depth and sympathy of ...
