The Grey God Passes

"The Twilight of the Grey Gods", also known as "The Grey God Passes", is a short story by American writer Robert E. Howard that blends history and fantasy. Published posthumously in 1962, the first appearance of the story was in a collection titled Dark Mind, Dark Heart, edited by August Derleth. The tale is a fictionalized version of the Battle of Clontarf recast in Howard's views, with doomful vision and fantasy elements. While the historical facts of the battle are accurate, they are not the

"The Grey God Passes" (Robert E Howard) Unpublished during Robert E. Howard's lifetime, this is a wonderfully haunting story, opening and closing with some of his most dramatic images. There are plenty of swords and axes flying one way with heads and arms going the other way, a few nice little subplots, and in general it's a fine story.
