It is a spiritual journey filled with my thoughts, ideas and hints that just make this process a little easier for other women. What I want more than anything is to reach out to women and help give them strength, support, ideas, and yes, even guidance and permission to do what is best for them as individuals.

A little about my journey: I like to look at my diagnosis as a little more of a positive one. Not many people feel that being diagnosed with Cancer is positive, but for me the early detection was certainly a saving grace for my prognosis and ability to overcome the disease. It was in Feb 2016 that I was diagnosed as having breast cancer.
