Serious Daring. Putting to use more than twenty years of teaching Creative Writing at the undergraduate and graduate levels, as well as her own writing in fiction, memoir, and poetry, Lisa Roney provides both serious rigor and a daring sense of play in a new textbook designed to help both students and their instructors navigate increasingly complex expectations in the classroom and writing world.

There exists a silent debate in the zeitgeist of literature about the relevancy of genre writing. Lisa Roney, in her creative writing text Serious Daring, attempts to categorize writing from the high-minded to the middle-ground (authors who are attempting to elevate their writing that otherwise might be considered schlock), and the schlock. Old school theory presenting as academic snobbery quote T.S. Eliot and revel in Shakespeare and talk about the beauty of the language and how one should ...
