Depending on the numbers attending, you may wish to have a large group presentation using the slides and split into smaller groups for the discussions and activities, in which case you will require additional facilitators and resources.

Train the Trainers' Toolkit

The term "train the trainer" is used to refer to the need to provide people who offer training and instruction with training of their own so that they can provide suitable education to their students. People often learn more from trainers who are experienced and who have pursued education to learn to become better at their jobs.

In Training, what does "Train the Trainer" Mean?

Healing Through Art: Train the Trainer. Healing Through Art Art is experiential – it is a “doing process.” It is also very personal. Creating art is a journey of personal expression and self-awareness. Using art to express what is inside of ourselves is a powerful means of easing pain, both physical and psychic, and of better tapping into ...
