06 April 2017. The Government has a vision for the future of food, farming and fisheries – to grow more, sell more and export more British food - and to further that vision, Defra is hosting a series of consultations in the South West. Defra has issued an invitation to a regional stakeholders' event titled: "Building a Great Future" at a series of venues across the region to allow Defra to capture both national and local issues and viewpoints.
