Baby Meets World Suck Smile

My baby will arrive in the world in around two months so I had better start getting a clue about what life will be like when he does. The subtitle of this book is “Suck, Smile, Touch, Toddle” and he tackles each subheading in its own section. This book is not a childcare guide, do not expect a handbook on h

It was too informative with its play by play of the research findings and observations around the topics of a baby's need to suck, reasons to smile, and (this is where I decided to stop trying to read) touch and toddle throughout history. I should say that, in the intro, Day warns that this is not a parenting book, a prescriptive how-to book.
