I Hunger For You Primes

The third book in the vampire Primes series. This book is the second in a two part story arc that began with I Thirst for You. A well written and paced book, it neatly tied up the lose ends and fleshed-out more of the Primes social structure. I enjoyed reading about the bondmate/wedding ceremony and hope to see it again in future books.

"Hunger" is an intense and powerful dramatization of the 1981 Irish hunger strike. What began as a protest in 1976, against the British government's withdrawal of 'Special Category Status' for convicted paramilitary prisoners, culminated five years later with hunger striker Bobby Sands being elected a Member of Parliament, prompting major media interest from around the world.
