 up where the War of

Amber and Ashes - Wikipedia

Amber and Ashes is the first Dragonlance book I have read so far. The story follows Mina, whom I think is a bit of an idiot because of her unwavering faith to Chemosh, the Dragonlance setting's god of death. While the book kind of advertises itself to be about Mina and Mina only, Amber and Ashes is also largely about Rhys, a monk of Majere. The story is good, though the "Vampiric Cult" is not really all that vampirish, yes they are undead, but that does not make them vampires.

Amber and Ashes This is yet another fascinating trilogy from the Dragonlance series, in which the story manages to get you even more addicted to the happenings and characters inside. It's the one of the best Dragonlance books that continues right after where the War of Souls left the character called Mina, as this story explores a few events that take place in a post-war Krynn.
