This highly imaginative technothriller blends elements of McCarthy's The Road and Crichton's Prey. Of course, in Bohacz's novel, the apocalyptic elements evolve over the course of the narrative, and the nanotechnology threat that Crichton uses so well in Prey is, in Bohacz's world, something left over, implanted by beings who populated the planet long before we crawled out of our primordial slime.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Immortality

As a continuation from his book "Immortality" Kevin Bohacz takes the reader beyond the events of his first book. His writing is imaginative and well developed. The book got a little slow in places, and at times I wondered where this is going. This is science fiction with an anthropologic twist.
