A Meeting at Corvallis | Emberverse Wiki | Fandom

A Meeting at Corvallis, the third book in first Emberverse trilogy, unfortunately didn't return to the magic of the 1st in this series. Too much battle info-dumping, not enough people behaving believably. (That said, I did cry at the death of one of the main protagonists near the end of the book) But I'm just done.

A Meeting at Corvallis (Emberverse, #3) by S.M. Stirling

While certainly an improvement over the middle volume of the trilogy, A Meeting at Corvallis is by no means perfect and is a less rewarding conclusion than I would have liked. The final confrontation is not nearly as exciting as it could have been, almost as if Stirling got bored and wanted to move on to something new.

Emberverse 3: A Meeting At Corvallis 1 of 3

A Meeting at Corvallis is a war between the good and the bad guys. My only complaint is Mr. Stirling has a tendency to rehash the characters beginnings a little too much; other than that, a very good read. Originally posted on A Meeting at Corvallis (Emberverse Series #3)

In A Meeting At
