«Sword Art Online» Chapter 1 A grey sword cut my shoulder. The thin line at the top left corner of my field of vision reduced slightly. At the same time a cold hand passed over my heart. The blue line—called the “HP bar”—is a visual rendering of my life force. There was still a little over 80 percent left.

There were no official character classes in Sword Art Online. Every player had a number of skill slots, and they were free to choose which skills to equip and advance. As an example, players who focused on crafting or trading skills might be referred to as blacksmiths, tailors, or cooks ... but I'd never heard of anyone called a knight or hero.
