Nickel Plated Aric Davis

Aric Davis has pulled off quite a feat with Nickel Plated. If Raymond Chandler were alive and jumping on the YA bandwagon, this is the book he'd have written. (And I bet Andrew Vachss wishes

Bold in concept, Nickel Plated puts a new spin on kid heroes. A protagonist who is very much a product of his upbringing, and unafraid to face the word, Nickel is a unique character. Though the voice didn't ring quite real enough for me, and the concept and realism didn't mesh completely, this is still an enjoyable read from a promising author.
