The novel written by Roger within The Gum Thief is a great story as well. Coupland has a great sense of humor that he intermixes throughout the book. This is one of the few books that I actually never wanted to end. This is my first Douglas Coupland novel but it definately will not be my last. A+ for The Gum Thief.

The Gum Thief is up there with the very best of Doug Coupland's work (which means at least as good as Generation X and JPod). It's wonderfully sustaining, despite the very humdrum setting of a Staples superstore in small town America. And the story within a story (Roger's magnum horribilis 'Glove Pond') is as ingenious as it is enthralling.
