Today, the Commission welcomed the political agreement between the European Parliament and EU Member States in the Council on the Recovery Assistance for Cohesion and the Territories of Europe package (REACT-EU). This is the first cohesion policy file whose trilogue negotiations are concluded pending the final approval of the legal texts by the European Parliament Plenary and the Council.

New Cohesion Policy - Regional Policy - European Commission

The EU Cohesion Monitor combines a total of 42 factors to measure cohesion along five individual and five structural cohesion indicators. The individual indicators quantify cohesion at the level of citizens' experiences, opinions and expectations. The structural indicators measure cohesion at the macro level of the state and the economy.

EU Cohesion Monitor - European Council on Foreign Relations

Cohesion is the only EU policy managed together by EU, national and regional actors, counteracting the Eurosceptic claim that the Union is too focused on centralization. But if funds are poorly managed, if they fail to tackle real needs due to complex rules or the lack of management capacity, if cooperation between the different levels of government is weak, we fail together.
