Something More Excavating Your Authentic

Something More addresses the need and desire of mature women to get back to their authentic selves, which we left behind when we took on all the "roles" we do of marriage, motherhood, career. I agree with the author that we did indeed leave behind a good chunk of that "girl" who loved to paint, write, climb trees, sing and dance.

As in the psalmist's prayer, we must pass through the Valley of the Shadow of discouragement, denial, doubt, and darkness--before we emerge into the light of Something More. The soul of Simple Abundance was its first principle, gratitude. The soul of Something More is the last Simple Abundance principle, joy. Just as gratitude helped us move from lack to abundance in all facets of our lives, joy will help us as we move from imitation to authenticity.
