If you are learning a science or maths, the knowledge elements build upon each other, whereas, in language, the knowledge elements are more parallel. You widen your use of language by broadening it, as opposed to just building it up. Of course, there is a lot of common ground.

Why learning English differs from learning maths and science

IXL is the world's most popular subscription-based learning site. Used by over 10 million students, IXL provides unlimited practice in more than 5,000 maths and English topics. Interactive questions, awards and certificates keep kids motivated as they master skills.
