Etruscan Myth, Sacred History, and Legend - Nancy Thomson ...

Since there is essentially no Etruscan literature preserved, our only knowledge about Etruscan myth comes through these engravings and some grave adornments. However, this collection arises more questions than it gives answers. Who were the Etruscans with their seemingly refined culture? Where did they come from?

The Etruscan elite must have learned about Greek myth and Greek religion through literate means, just as later the Romans touched Greek culture in the same way. The Etruscans give us an example of cultural forms passing directly from one people to another by literate and not oral means, a model for the Romans, and I wish that de G. had found opportunity to discuss how this blend may have taken place.
