Ten Things Pixar Can Teach Us About Creativity | by John ...

Pixar began as a technology company that slowly pivoted into filmmaking. Their movies often take multiple shapes, with constant pivoting along the way. Typically, they have one foot on an idea, concept, or value, and then keep trying new things until it works. I loved seeing how movies like Monsters, Inc. evolved over the years of planning. This is important for students working on collaborative groups working on creative projects.
