Yesterday she sent me a crystal unicorn for Mothers Day. She's a 21 year old marine now. Her card said it made her think of our Unicorn Days. These books still mean the world to us. And of course, we are both on close terms with the Unicorns of the world! So now I'm buying another set of these books for my little 7 year old grand daughter.

Its about a unicorn called Louie and his dream is to go to New York so he goes to New York and goes to the school of performing arts! I didn't give it 5 stars because at the end of the book there were no pictures but in the first 2 chapters there where loads of pictures! I really like it and I've put a photo in as well of the book.
