In the half century since the television series Route 66 went off the air, the road that the series took its title from has been officially decommissioned; many of the stars, guest stars, and even cameos from the series have gone on to successful film careers; and the American landscape - not to mention the Chevrolet Corvette - that featured so prominently in the series has drastically changed. Yet one production company believes it's high time to bring the series back to the small screen.
