House of M was the best option given the circumstance. Since I am only reading everything Avengers right now, this was a unique opportunity to learn more about the X-Men as well. I loved how Wolverine, who has been my favorite character since my childhood, was the protagonist and how he deals with the task at hand.

And let me tell you something: writer Brian Michael Endis and artist Oliver Coipel have composed a formidable and pristine piece of comic book storytelling in the unbelievably catastrophic major event of House of M which had been dubbed ominously as "M-Day."
