Discovering Psychology, 4th Edition 4th Edition - amazon.com

This book was required for a core psychology class at my college. The book does have a wide range of topics and is fairly cheap if bought used. However, some of the material is difficult to find good examples of or just difficult to find in general. This led to some hectic nights of cramming. My other complaint is the way that the chapters are organized in the book. The chapters are in a order ...
