Amy Hatvany's latest novel, Outside the Lines, provides a beautiful insight into mental illness - both from the perspective of the person struggling with the disease and those around them. Eden idolised her father and loved to hear the story of how her parents - her conservative mother Lydia and eccentric (and artistic) father David - met.

Fiction Book Review: Outside the Lines by Amy Hatvany ...

"Outside the Lines" is Awesome Outside the Lines is a very well written story. It is engaging and realistic. Despite the heavy topic of mental illness, "Outside The Lines" doesn't leave the listener / reader feeling down. The characters are well developed and not "predictable." I enjoyed Eden & Jack's sense of humor.
