The Cinema's Third Machine-Combined Academic

Excerpt. Discourse about the cinema is... its third machine: after the one that manufactures the films, and the one that consumes them, the one that vaunts them, that valorises the product--CHRISTIAN metz, The Imaginary Signifier. Every time a new cultural practice emerges, the established systems of thought are put into question, and, for a short moment, critical paradigms are open to reexamination and renegotiation. in such a situation, critics have the chance to explore new avenues of ...
